The Chartered
Institute of Marketing

Dear delegate,

Now that's what I call creativity

We hope you are looking forward to our third 'Professional Marketer' series event on Integrated Marketing Communications and Creativity on Thursday 21 January. The venue is the Regent Street Cinema, 309 Regent St, London, W1B 2UW. The nearest tube station is Oxford Circus, just a 2 minute walk away.

You will find the conference programme attached. Registration will be in the cinema foyer from 13:00 and refreshments and a light buffet lunch will be served in the bar at this time - we are expecting over 80 attendees so registration may get busy at times.

The conference starts promptly at 14:00 and finishes at 16:00.

We look forward to seeing you next week.
